W WELCOME

WELCOME to the 2018-19 new season!

SCHOOL PARTNERSHIPS

Thank you to our partners who offer a comprehensive sequence of programming for all elementary students in their schools.

- Dayton Public Schools
- Kettering City Schools
- Troy City Schools

For more information about School Partnerships, contact Ruth Reveal, Director of Education, reveal@daytonperformingarts.org.

We are thrilled to offer you the education programs of the Dayton Performing Arts Alliance. The Dayton Ballet, Dayton Opera, and Dayton Philharmonic all offer engaging, curriculum-connected programs to inspire your students. We have programs for students of all ages, so browse through and take your pick!

Nothing can duplicate the experience of live performances. Whether in your school or on a field trip, give your students the gift of the arts while also helping them see how the arts are an integral part of school curricula and the world around us.

We look forward to meeting your students soon!

Best,

Ruth Reveal

ENSEMBLE VISITS Philharmonic

Entrance your preschool through Grade 2 students with a visit from one of our ensembles. Professional musicians from the Dayton Philharmonic will show students how music can tell a story in a way that's fun and engaging for our littlest audience members. Choose from one of our four ensemble programs. Curriculum Connections: English Language Arts, Social-Emotional Skills, Music

Age: Preschool-Grade 2
 Length: 30 minutes
 Audience Size: Up to 4 classes
 Cost: $200 per performance

To book, contact DPAA's Education Department, 937-224-3521, x1136 or x1140

Goldilocks and the Three Bears | Our string quartet brings this classic tale to life. Discover what Goldilocks needs to learn about being a good family member.

The Three Little Pigs | Another classic unfolds with the help of our string quartet. Your students will learn about music and some good lessons about friendship.

The Land of XYZ | Four different dinosaurs, played by our string quartet, wish they could be someone else until they work together to solve a problem. Your students will discover that their unique characteristics and abilities are important to their community.

Wee 3 | A string bass, a trumpet, and percussion! What could these instruments possibly have in common? Find out as the DPO Trio explores likenesses, differences, and teamwork.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS & HUMANITIES CONNECTIONS

Music and Art Pairings • Woodwind Quintet | This multimedia presentation pairs music with paintings, architecture, and sculpture. Learn how the visual arts and music are connected by choosing one of the following engaging programs: Art & Arpeggios, Brushes & Beats, Color & Crescendo, Leonardo da Vinci: Artist, Scientist & Inventor, and Fascinating Female Artists. A projector, screen, and computer are recommended for this program.

Music for the Dance • String Quintet | Music must be organized, especially when it involves dance! Students will learn how form, patterns, and rhythm combine to create characteristic dance styles from around the world.

In-School Programs

SOCIAL STUDIES CONNECTIONS

Music and Culture • DPO Trio | After a speedy trip around the world to discover how music reflects the culture of its people, your students will arrive in an American classroom to meet the Creatures in Room 642 by Cincinnati composer Frank Proto. Here they will learn how music not only describes a culture but also reveals the people in it!

Music Around the World • Brass Quintet | Dress, language, and customs all combine to define a culture, but what is missing? Music, of course! Take a musical journey and discover the unique characteristics of music from around the world.

Where in Europe Is...? • String Quintet | Test your students' map reading skills. The quintet will play music from various European countries and enlist volunteers from the audience to help them build a map of Europe.

American Vignettes • DPO Trio | American Vignettes was composed especially for the DPO Trio by Cincinnati composer Joe Price. From New Orleans to the Wild West, this lively presentation takes your students on a musical journey across the U.S.

Where in the World Is...? • Woodwind Quintet | Follow musical cues from Europe to the Far East to South America and Africa to discover the unique musical sounds of countries around the world. This program will reinforce your students' listening and map reading skills.
