

NEWSLETTER

Dayton Performing Arts Alliance

WELCOME

Welcome to the latest edition of our EnCorps Newsletter! We are so grateful for your dedication to the Dayton Performing Arts Alliance and the work that we do. In this newsletter, you'll find the recipe for Neal's FAMOUS cheesecake, photos from this past fall, and more. Thank you for all that you do to support DPAA and our learning programs.

WHY VOLUNTEER

Volunteering for Dayton Performing Arts Alliance can be a rewarding and meaningful way to contribute to the Dayton community. Whether you enjoy doing administrative work, inspiring young audiences, sewing ballet costumes, or welcoming patrons to our performances, there is something for everyone.

NOMINATE A MEMBER

We are looking for nominations for our future 'EnCorps Member Spotlight' in our Newsletter. Please submit your nominations here on this form:

<https://forms.office.com/r/SL3ULCKfyg>

Thank you for all that you do!

Images from the Children's Traveling Opera.

"The staff, musicians, volunteers and others did a fantastic job during the entire event. Everyone was helpful and did a great job at keeping things running smoothly. As a family, we especially loved that the PhilharMonster event took place during the hour before our performance. We had a great time and look forward to our other upcoming performances. Again, you all did an amazing job!"

- survey response from PhilharMonster 2023

Images from the New Year's Potluck on Tuesday, January 30th.

Messages from students who attended the Young People's Concert:

Dear, Dayton Phil.

Yesterday I attended your young Peoples concert. Everyone did a fantastic job and I loved all the music. Thank you for inviting us we really enjoyed it.

Dear Maestro Reynolds and the Dayton Phil.

I went to your music show and I loved the music so much. It was energetic Amazing loud in a good way and I could feel it I just loved it. I Found the composer is DEAD! really interesting. I loved the ending super interising and Maestro Reynolds a great composer I hope you will invite us again.

Dear Maestro Reynolds and the Dayton Phil,

Hello, we went to your concert on Wednesday and it was a blast! I loved it so much, I really hope we can come back sometime again! Please tell the orchestra that they did an AMAZING job!

Updates

THANK YOU for being a part of EnCorps. We are thrilled to announce that we have 98 members in our volunteer committee. Please encourage your friends, family, neighbors or colleagues to join, so we can reach the 100-volunteer mark!

We are in the process of working on EnCorps shirts and nametags and are hoping to have those very soon. If you have any recommendations of businesses, please email Melissa at mmccoy@daytonperformingarts.org

As mentioned at the New Year's Potluck, we are working on a fundraising event in late spring of 2024. If you have any ideas or suggestions, please contact us.

Your voice matters! We are looking for contributed articles, stories, and more about your experiences as a volunteer to include in our newsletters. Please submit any stories to Melissa.

Please click this Doodle link to select which day/time you are able to attend our next EnCorps meeting:
<https://doodle.com/meeting/participate/id/b4WPrGJa>

Donate Now

Volunteering is a commitment of time and resources, which is why there is no fee required to be a part of our dedicated group. If you are able to contribute financially, we encourage you to become a DPAA member, here: <https://donate2.app/dpa/give-today>

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

There are many opportunities to volunteer at DPAA, whether you want to support the Learning and Community Engagement team, assist with administration work in the office or in the community, and more.

You can find all Sign-up Genius links on our website below. If you haven't registered to be an EnCorps member yet click the link below and sign-up!

To sign-up visit:
daytonperformingarts.org/volunteer

 (937) 535 - 5469

 volunteer@daytonperformingarts.org

 126 N Main St, Suite 210